2 DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICES

2.1 The purpose of the Platform is to bring Brands in contact with Retailers for the purchase of Products by the Retailers, who are willing to purchase these Products through the Platform.

2.2 The Platform is intended to provide Services exclusively to the professional Users and Members, whether they are Brands or Retailers, to the exclusion of consumers and non-professionals. In these ToU, “professional” means any individual or legal entity, public or private, who or which acts for purposes that are within the scope of its commercial, industrial, artisan, self-employed, or agricultural activities, including when such person acts for or on behalf of another professional. If not a professional, the User, whether a Brands or a Retailer, undertakes to immediately stop visiting the Platform and, as the case may be, to not register on the Platform.

2.3 Doosty's role shall be limited to acting as an intermediary between the Retailers and the Products of the Brands. Doosty is in no manner involved in the selling of Products between Retailers and Brands, such Retailers and Brands deciding alone, at their discretion, on the entering into of contracts through the Platform. Doosty: (i) is neither a seller, nor a reseller, nor the owner of the Products that are distributed through the Platform; (ii) never enters into possession of the Products that are put up for sale; (iii) does not hold the Products in stock; and (iv) does not hold the Products as a custodian or trustee of any kind. So, Doosty cannot be held liable for any actions or omissions potentially committed by the Brands or by the Retailer on its Platform. As such, Doosty has no control over the sale or the payment of the Products sold or purchased on its Platform.

3 TERMS OF ACCEPTANCE OF THE ToU, AMENDMENTS TO THE ToU

3.2 By visiting or accessing the Platform and by using the Service, the User or the Member expressly consents, without restriction, to be legally bound by all of the provisions of the ToU. If the User or the Member does not agree with these ToU, this User or Member undertakes to immediately stop visiting the Platform and, as the case may be, to refrain from registering with the Platform.

3.3 Doosty reserves the right to amend these ToU at any time, and to inform each Member thereof by e-mail. Unless expressly provided otherwise in these ToU, the amendments made to these ToU shall take effect fifteen (15) calendar days after their online publication. During that time period of fifteen (15) calendar days, each Member may give Doosty notice of its refusal of these amendments, in which case these ToU (and, accordingly, the Member's right to use the Service) shall expire at the end of the aforementioned time period of fifteen (15) calendar days, in the conditions set out in the articles 16.1 and 16.4 et seq. of the ToU.

4 ACCESS TO THE PLATFORM AND TO THE SERVICE

4.1 Access to the Platform is available to any User, whether a registered User or not. However, access to the Service, and the use of all of its functionalities, require the prior registration of the User as a Member. Doosty reserves the right to accept or refuse a Member's application for registration, in accordance with the terms specified on the Platform and/or at the time of registration. The registration of a legal entity as a Member may only be made by an individual authorized to represent such legal entity.

4.2 Doosty reserves the right, at any time and at its sole discretion, to suspend or interrupt the access to the Platform and/or the Service, in full or in part, notably for maintenance purposes, operational requirements, internal choices, or in case of emergency.

4.3 Doosty reserves the right to upgrade the functionalities and the Service available on the Platform, at any time and at its sole discretion.

4.4 Doosty reserves the right, at any time and at its sole discretion, to delete or modify any Content, including, but not limited to, for technical, business or practical reasons. It is understood that such interventions will in no circumstances result in Doosty being held liable, nor give rise to compensation or damages being payable to a Member or a User.

4.5 A Member, who wishes to delete its account, may do so directly through the Platform, or by sending a request for deletion to Doosty by e-mail to: info@doosty.com.

4.6 The Member's deletion of its account entails the immediate termination, as of right, of these ToU, such termination taking effect in accordance with the provisions of article 16.1.

4.7 Doosty, which is a mere intermediary, does not control the information given by the Members and published on the Platform. Doosty gives no warranty whatsoever, the Platform and the Service being provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. Also, Doosty does not warrant that access to the Service or to the Platform shall be uninterrupted or error-free.

5 TERMS OF REGISTRATION WITH THE SERVICE

5.1 To access all of the functionalities of the Platform and the Service and to offer Products for sale through the Platform, the User must first register with the Platform as a Member and provide all of the requested information and documents, so that it can have access to all of the functionalities of the Platform and the Service. Failing that, Doosty reserves the right not to approve the registration.

5.2 The Brands expressly accepts to enter into an Invoicing Agreement with Doosty to use the Platform.

5.3 The Member undertakes not to give information that infringes third party rights. Besides, the Member undertakes to refrain from registering as a login/alias, all or part of an URL, address or other domain name pointing to an external website. Doosty reserves the right, notably in the event of a dispute between Members, to ask the Member who failed to comply with the terms of this article, to modify the information given and to do so within the time period to be indicated by Doosty.

5.4 Besides, the Member undertakes that the information it provides upon its registration is accurate, sincere, exhaustive and up-to-date, and he further undertakes to rectify such information later on if the information becomes obsolete or out-of-date. If the Member fails to comply with this obligation, Doosty reserves the right to suspend and/or close the Member's account, and to deny any access to the Service to that Member. Each Member is solely responsible for any consequences that may result from the provision of false, invalid or erroneous information to Doosty and/or to any other Member.

5.5 Each Member undertakes to create and use one account only, save with Doosty's prior approval. As soon as a Member registers, or for any subsequent connection, a Member may access its account by entering its login and its password. A Member's login and password are strictly personal. The Member undertakes to choose a robust password and to keep this password confidential.

5.6 The use of a Member's login, associated with the Member's password, shall be a conclusive presumption that access to, and use of, the Service is by that Member or under that Member's control. In the event a Member becomes aware that a third party accessed its account, the Member undertakes to immediately change its password and to promptly notify Doosty by e-mail to info@doosty.com.

5.7 The Member has a duty to act in good faith and respectfully in its relationships with Doosty and the other Members.

6 ACCESS TO PAYMENT FACILITIES SERVICE

6.1 Doosty is using external partners to offer a payment service in installments, and a deferred payment service, to the Retailers purchasing Products on the Platform.

7 THE BRANDS OBLIGATIONS

7.1 The Brands is responsible for defining alone, and under its responsibility, the terms and conditions of sale of its Products, it being specified that the applicable terms of delivery, applicable terms of approval of the Products, and applicable terms of payment are those defined in these ToU and/or on the Platform, and that in the event of a contradiction with the Brands's terms and conditions of sale in relation to this aspect, these ToU and the information published on the Platform shall prevail.

7.2 The Brands undertakes to clearly display the terms and conditions applicable to the selling of the Products, to any commercial cooperation services, and to any other obligations intended to foster the commercial relationship, including, but not limited to, the full and accurate characteristics and properties of the Products, the availability of the products, any terms and conditions applicable to the ordering of Products (minimum quantity to be ordered), any restrictions related to the minimum quantity of Products to be ordered, the sale price of the Products, conditions of transport and delivery, transport and delivery times, and any other applicable conditions of sale.

7.3 Upon receiving an order placed by the Retailer through the Platform, the Brands may accept, modify, or refuse the order. The Brands undertakes to do so within the time limit and in the conditions indicated on the Platform.

7.4 The Brands is solely responsible for preparing the order, for its transportation and for its delivery at the place of delivery agreed with the Retailer. Each order will have a package identification number, which the Brands undertakes to disclose to the Retailer and, as the case may, to payment service provider.

7.5 On the Date of Confirmation, or the expiry of the Deadline for Complaints, an Invoice will be prepared by Doosty for and on behalf of the Brands, and be sent to the Retailer. The Brands is required to provide Doosty with all information or other legal information that has to appear on this Invoice in accordance with the Brands's legal obligations, as provided for in the Invoicing Agreement. On this date, all of the elements mentioned on the Invoice will be frozen, including the date of issue of the Invoice, which corresponds to such Date of Confirmation or to the Deadline for Complaints, and the Invoice that has been issued shall then be valid as an irrevocable order to pay. The Brands acknowledges that, on such date, the Retailer may no longer dispute the Invoice.

7.6 The Invoice will be settled by the Retailer through the Platform, within the time limit indicated. This time limit will vary depending on the mode of payment agreed between the Retailer and the Brands (for example: early payment at the time of the order, with a discount for cash payment as described on the Platform, or, at the latest, payment sixty (60) calendar days after the date of issue of the Invoice). Payment shall take place by debiting the relevant amount from the Retailer's bank account. Doosty may offer the Brands vouchers and promotional codes, which the Brands may provide to Retailers so that they pay all or part of an order, the balance remaining due and payable by debit from their bank account. The Brands accepts that Doosty may freely, and at its discretion, set the terms of use of these vouchers and promotional codes, notably by providing for a limited time to use a voucher or promotional code and/or for the use of a limited number of vouchers or promotional codes by order. Moreover,

Doosty is free to modify or terminate any voucher programme or promotional code programme at any time, at its discretion, without this giving rise to the payment of any compensation to the Brands.

7.7 The Brands shall receive payment for the whole amount of the Invoice, incl. tax, through the Platform, either from payment provider or directly from the Retailer, less the commission payable to Doosty as provided for in article 8.1 of these ToU.

7.8 The funds payable to the Brands in respect of the Invoices shall be kept on the Brands's regulated bank account that will be set up by STRIPE, Doosty's payment services partner, before being paid by STRIPE to the Brands. The funds payable to the Brands in respect of the Invoices will never be in Doosty's possession nor under its control.

7.9 The Brands undertakes that it will, autonomously and under its sole responsibility, manage the preparation of the order, its transportation, and its delivery to the place of delivery agreed with the Retailer.

7.10 The Brands undertakes to issue a delivery note to be signed by the Retailer on the date the order is delivered by the Retailer, and to notify Doosty of the signature of the delivery note.

7.11 The Brands undertakes that, on the Date of Confirmation or the Deadline for Complaints, it will draw up an Invoice, based on the details of the corresponding orders and in accordance with legal requirements. On that date, all of the elements on the Invoice shall be frozen, including notably:

7.11.1 the date of issue, such date corresponding to the Date of Confirmation or to the Deadline for Complaints;

7.11.2 the due date;

7.11.3 the following text: "Invoice to be paid to the Brands's specific account opened by Doosty's partner (STRIPE)", with an indication of the bank details of such bank account; and

7.11.4 the following text: "No discount for early payment. In case of late payment, late interest at a rate of 12% per annum shall be payable immediately, without any reminder being necessary, and a lump-sum indemnity of 40 dollars for debt collection costs shall be payable as well. An additional indemnity will be requested if the amount of the debt collection costs is higher than this lump-sum indemnity of 40 dollars."

7.12 Upon receiving payment of the corresponding Invoice through the Platform, the Brands undertakes to pay the commission mentioned in article 8.1 of these ToU, to Doosty. This commission shall be directly withheld from the amount paid to the Brands. If not, the commission will be paid by the Brands upon receiving payment of the Invoice.

7.13 Doosty reminds the Brands of its obligation to comply with all laws, regulations and obligations that are incumbent on it as a professional seller, notably having regard to intellectual property legislation.

7.14 The Brands shall indemnify and hold Doosty harmless with respect to any consequences related to a Brands's breach of any of its obligations as a professional. The Brands, accordingly, undertakes to be directly responsible for the payment of any sums, including any sums awarded in court, any court costs, lawyers' fees, and other sums that may be owed in this respect, or to reimburse these sums to Doosty upon first demand. Notably, the Brands warrants to Doosty that it complies with any third party intellectual property rights, including in designs, models, patents, and trademarks.

7.15 Each Brands undertakes not to list and/or distribute Products that do not correspond, or do not exactly correspond to a Brands's Product actually available for purchase for resale on the Platform; or that infringe or are in breach of applicable laws and regulations or good morale, or that do not constitute authorised Products under contractual provisions; notably, each Brands undertakes not to list and/or distribute Products that are fraudulent Products (particularly Products held following their receipt as stolen goods, or illegally imported Products), or Products infringing third party rights, such as infringing Products.

7.16 Doosty is drawing the Brands's attention to the absolute need for any Brands making a Product available on the market, and notably any Brands making a Product available for sale on the Platform, to make sure that this Products strictly complies with any laws, regulations and other requirements in force, as from the production or manufacturing of this Product and until this Product is delivered to the Retailer.

7.17 All orders placed by the Retailer are independent from each other. The unavailability of one or several Product(s) ordered from one or several Brands through the Platform shall not be a reason for cancelling all of the Products ordered, as the Retailer is bound by the order placed for the other Product(s) that is (are) available.

7.18 Failing receipt of the Product or Products ordered, the Retailer will lodge a complaint with the Brands.

7.19 In the event that, following an alert received from a Member, or by Doosty's own act, Doosty notes that Products that are in breach of these ToU are put up for sale, Doosty reserves the right to:

7.19.1 remove these Products from the Platform;

7.19.2 block or suspend the Brands's account;

7.19.3 terminate these ToU with immediate effect, this termination resulting in the closing and deletion of the Brands's account; and/or

7.19.4 disclose all required information about any offer of sale and/or any purchase of these Products on the Platform, including the Members' personal information as the case may be, to the competent authorities, and/or to cooperate with the competent authorities upon request.

7.20 The Brands also undertakes that it will use the contact details and other data disclosed by the Retailer only for the strict purposes of fulfilling the relevant order and of complying with legal obligations associated with that order, and in compliance with these ToU. Notably, the Brands undertakes not to offer products to the Retailer, which are available outside the Platform.

7.21 In particular, in the event Doosty becomes aware of any Member's act or behaviour outside the Platform (i) that aims at enticing, or attempting to entice all or part of the Retailers away from the Platform, or that aims at encouraging all or part of the Retailers not to buy through the Platform, or to stop buying through the Platform; (ii) that is potentially unfair, damaging, anti-commercial, denigrating, defamatory, injurious or harmful toward Doosty, the Platform, any Member and/or any third party, or (iii) that infringes the laws and regulations applicable to Doosty in any other manner, Doosty reserves the right to terminate these ToU by notice with immediate effect.

7.22 The Brands warrants it holds all of the rights that are necessary to sell any Product the Brands puts up for sale on the Platform, and the Brands shall hold Doosty harmless with respect to any complaint relating to the Content of an offer of sale of a Product and/or to the performance of the sale.

7.23 The Brands undertakes that it will offer its services, and carry out purchases for resale, on the Platform in the Brands's own name only. Thus, the Brands undertakes not to sub-contract the purchase-for-resale transactions, in whole or in part, to any third party.

7.24 In the event of a dispute between Brands because of Content published by one of them (for example, in the event a Brands alleges infringement or unfair competition), it shall be up to the Brands to get in touch with each other and to settle the dispute between them. Doosty shall not be required to get involved in the resolution of the dispute. Therefore, Doosty reserves the right not to follow up on a Brands's complaint that would be sent to Doosty in such a situation, without being held liable in any way for doing so.

8 COMMISSION PAYABLE TO Doosty

8.1 As a counterpart to the Service supplied, the Brands undertakes to pay Doosty a commission, which rate excl. tax shall have been agreed beforehand between Doosty and the Brands. This rate shall depend on the amount including tax (incl. delivery costs) of the price of each order. The amount of this commission excludes taxes and shall be increased by any applicable taxes. The commission shall be billed for any order placed via the Platform.

8.2 The commission is due as from the issuing of the Invoice on behalf of the Brands, and the commission is payable no later than at the end of the time limit for payment that is mentioned on the Invoice. In practice, the commission shall be deducted from the amount paid to the Brands through the Platform, by the Retailer. The commission is in no way refundable.

8.3 Doosty reserves the right, without indemnity, and with at least sixty (60) days prior notice, to modify the commission defined in article 8.1 of these ToU. In case of a disagreement, the Member may terminate these ToU on the effective date of the modification(s) in issue.

In the case of proven fraud (fraudulent copy, handling of stolen property, illegal import, etc.), or upon request, Doosty reserves the right to disclose all necessary information, including personal information, to the competent authorities in charge of punishing these frauds and offences, notwithstanding any other recourse.

16 TERMINATION

16.1 The right of access to the Platform, the Service, and all rights and obligations deriving from these ToU may be terminated at any time by the Member or by Doosty, without a specific reason, by e-mail or through the Platform. Any termination in accordance with the terms of this article 16.1 will be effective only on the date of full payment of all sums owed by the Member in accordance with the terms of these ToU.

16.2 Without prejudice to any other remedies, Doosty reserves the right to terminate the right of access to the Platform, the Service, and all rights and obligations deriving from these ToU as of right, with immediate effect, in the following situations, such situations being described as serious breaches:

16.2.1 in case of a breach of the articles 2.2, 5, 7, 9, 13, and 14 ;

16.2.2 if Doosty is unable to verify or authenticate the information given by the Member, and the Member fails to follow up on Doosty's requests for verification and/or authentication;

16.2.3 if the Member's acts are likely to result in Doosty, the Member, any other User, or any Doosty partner being held liable;

16.2.4 in case the Member's behaviour is in breach of the service level agreement relating to the Platform, is potentially harmful for, detrimental to, and/or unfair for the Platform, Doosty and/or any Member.

16.3 Without prejudice to article 16.2, in the event a Party is in breach of any one of its obligations under the ToU, the other Party may terminate the right of access to the Platform, the Service, and all rights and obligations deriving from these ToU immediately and as of right, following a formal notice to remedy the relevant breach that remained unsuccessful for one

(1) month.

16.4 In the event of termination in accordance with the terms of this article, the Member's account will be closed automatically, the Member's access to the Platform will be disabled, and the Member will no longer have access to the Service, all as from the effective date of termination as provided for in this article 16. Consequently, the Brands's Products shall no longer be accessible on the Platform, and the Brands's account will be disabled and be removed from the Platform search results, all as from the effective date of termination. Finally, any sum that is owed by the Member shall become immediately due and payable. The termination will have no effect on the orders for Products that are in progress, such orders remaining subject to the terms of these ToU.

16.5 In the event of termination for whatever reason, it is expressly agreed by the Parties that any provisions, by essence, are intended to survive the termination of these ToU, whatever the reason for such termination, will remain in force for the duration that is applicable to such provisions.

16.6 At a Member's request until the effective date of termination, the Contents may be exported in a format and on financial terms to be agreed, as appropriate, between the Parties. After the effective date of termination, Doosty reserves the right to delete the Contents at any time, subject to the license granted on the Contents in accordance with article 14.

17 LIABILITY

17.1 The Parties shall be responsible for any harmful consequences that may result for the performance or non-performance of the obligations that are incumbent upon them hereunder. Each Party expressly agrees that he may only be held liable for the direct damages resulting from a non-performance of these ToU that is attributable to him.

17.2 Doosty only has a 'best efforts' obligation as regards the making available of the Platform and the Service. Besides, Doosty, in its capacity as the host of Contents made available online by Members, accepts no liability whatsoever for the Contents published by the Members through the Platform, as Doosty carries out no prior control of these Contents.

17.3 Save if a proven fault can be attributable to Doosty, Doosty shall not be held liable for any damage potentially suffered by a User because of the use, or the impossibility to use, all or part of the Platform. Doosty shall not be liable either for any consequences which would have been caused by the internet network or by the User's information system, such as a possible malfunctioning, failure or breakdown, delay, or interruption of access to the electronic communications network, including Internet.

17.4 Finally, Doosty's liability won't be incurred in the event the non-performance or late performance of any one of its obligations would be attributable to an event or circumstance that is beyond Doosty's control, and that could not have reasonably been foreseen at the time when these ToU were accepted, and which effects could not be avoided using appropriate measures.

17.5 In any event, except applicable legal provisions, Doosty's liability to the Brands in the event of a breach of any one of Doosty's obligations hereunder, for all causes and whatever the circumstances, shall not exceed the higher of:

17.5.1 the aggregate amount of commissions actually paid by the Member to Doosty during the twelve (12) months preceding the event which resulted in the damage; or

17.5.2 five hundred (500) dollars incl. tax.

17.6 Doosty will in no case be held liable for indirect damage suffered by the User, nor for any lost profit, loss of turnover, loss of anticipated savings, loss of goodwill, loss of customers, damage to reputation, or loss of data.

17.7 Each User is invited to notify Doosty in the event of a breach of these ToU, notably in the event this User would note that Products not complying with the terms of these ToU are offered for sale. The User is invited to notify Doosty by e-mail to the following address: info@doosty.com.

17.8 The Brands shall also be solely responsible for the performance of the sales contracts entered into with Retailers through the Platform, as long as Doosty's liability for the non-performance or poor performance of the sales contract is not proven by the Brands. Consequently, the Brands undertakes to indemnify Doosty and to hold Doosty harmless with respect to any liability, claim, suit, or proceedings brought against Doosty by a User, a Member, a Retailer or a third party, or by any administrative authority, in connection with the non-conformity of a Product to applicable regulations, with the non-compliance with economic regulations, the use of the Products, or the performance of the sales contract between the Brands and any Retailer. The Brands therefore undertakes that he will be directly responsible for, or that he will reimburse Doosty upon demand for, the payment of any sums, including any sums awarded in court, court costs, lawyers' fees, and any other amounts that would be due in this respect

17.9 The Brands undertakes to take public and professional liability insurance with an insurance company known to be solvent, to cover the liability the Brands may incur, on any legal basis whatsoever, for the damages of any kind the Brands may cause in the context of the performance of these ToU. The Brands will provide Doosty, upon request, with supporting evidence of the taking of such insurance.

18 EVIDENCE

18.1 The Parties acknowledge that Doosty's disclosure of the recordings on Doosty's servers, which relate to the use of the Platform, including notably the Members' nominative access codes, connection logs, and any documents and e-mails exchanged via the Platform or in the context of these ToU and stored on Doosty's servers, shall be considered proof between the Parties.

19 ASSIGNMENT

19.1 No Party may transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of, all or part of its rights or obligations, or the ToU, with or without consideration, save with the other Party's prior written consent.

19.2 As an exception to the foregoing, Doosty may freely transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of all or part of its rights or obligations or the ToU, as part of a restructuring (including any merger, absorption, transfer or contribution of all or part of its assets, direct or indirect change of control).

20 GENERAL PROVISIONS

20.1 Doosty shall be entitled to sub-contract all or part of its obligations to any third party subcontractor of its choosing. Doosty remains liable for these subcontractors' actions and omissions. It is expressly agreed by the Parties that Doosty's financing partner is a provider that is independent from Doosty and that does not act as a subcontractor of Doosty. Therefore, Doosty shall not be held liable to the Member for the actions or omissions of that financing partner.

20.2 Unless expressly provided otherwise, these ToU shall not be interpreted as making a Party the attorney, agent, or representative of the other Party, nor as constituting memorandum and articles of association. The Parties' willingness to be part of a company, as well as any joint and several liability toward third parties or between the Parties are specifically excluded. So, each Party undertakes to refrain from doing anything that may mislead a third party in this respect, and to make no commitment, nor provide any guarantee, on behalf of the other Party, unless expressly provided otherwise in this contract.

20.3 In case of difficulties of interpretation between any one of the headings given to the articles of these ToU and any one of the provisions of these ToU, the headings will be declared non-existing.

20.4 For the performance of all of the terms hereof and for any consequences hereof, the Parties choose their respective registered addresses as their domicile. Any change of the address chosen by a Party for the aforementioned purposes will be enforceable against the other Party only if such change of address is notified to that other Party by e-mail or through the Platform (if the option is available).

20.5 Any formal notice or notice relating to the enforcement of these ToU will be regarded as being validly given only if it was sent to the domicile of the Party by registered letter with proof of receipt, unless expressly provide otherwise in these ToU.

20.6 In the event any provision of these ToU were found null, invalid or unenforceable by any court whatsoever in a final decision, that provision shall be deleted without this resulting in the nullity of the ToU as a whole. The other provisions of the ToU shall remain unchanged and shall continue to apply.

20.7 No forbearance, waiver or omission, regardless of the duration and number of them, in claiming/to claim the existence or a total or partial breach of any one of the provisions of these ToU shall constitute a change, a deletion of this provision, or a waiver to invoke a prior, contemporaneous or later breach of the same provision or of other provisions. Such a waiver shall be of no effect unless it is expressed in a written document signed by the person who has been duly authorised to that end.

20.8 Doosty, on the one hand, and the Member, on the other hand, are independent parties, each of which acting in its own name and on its own behalf. Unless expressly provided otherwise, these ToU create no bond of obedience, mandate, partnership, joint venture, employer/employee, principal/attorney, or franchisor/franchisee relationships between Doosty and each Member.

21 APPLICABLE LAW - JURISDICTION

21.1 These ToU shall be governed by and constructed in accordance with the laws of France, without giving effect to its choice of law rules.

21.2 EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY LAW, ANY DISPUTE RELATING TO THE VALIDITY, INTERPRETATION, PERFORMANCE, OR THE FULL OR PARTIAL TERMINATION OF THE COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIPS SHALL BE REFERRED TO LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA, WHICH WILL HAVE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION. THE PARTIES HERETO WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO JURISDICTION AND VENUE IN SUCH COURTS.

21.3 Any disputes between Members will be settled between the relevant Members. Doosty is not required to intervene in the settlement of, or to settle such a dispute.
